At any rate, you will read those parts of my letter with less pain than the. Collapse can be precipitated by external invasion, but when an otherwise sound civilisation is overcome by the sheer military force of barbarians, it frequently succeeds in assimilating and converting the invaders, as the Chinese absorbed their Mongol conquerors, or the Persians civilised the Turks who ruled them for centuries. Spindler, Anselm.

That night pandemonium reigned in the house, the chairs were hurled about, the china was broken, and the most weird and uncanny sounds were heard. Today the picture of development has many overlapping layers. Framed as a son's perspective of convincing his father to visit his home in the old country - and then accompanying his father on that trip - it uses stories and memories to give background while making you feel like you've met and talked to and made friends with an old Basque man.
