LETTERS TO THE HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX

In response to an essay written by his English friend Edmund Burke condemning the uprising in France, Paine penned the Rights of Man advocating republican government and attacking the English monarchy. When psychologists study criticism as a type of human behavior, they do not usually study it "in general" - such a general study is often considered to be more a philosophical concern.

The Preached God: Proclamation in Word and Sacrament (Lutheran Quarterly Books)

Though not the first fictional detective, Sherlock Holmes is arguably the best known, with Guinness World Records listing him as the "most portrayed movie character" in history. The decision to deal with Heinrich Boll's early fictional work opened up the opportunity for me to take advantage of "new" works which, although written in the forties and early fifties, were finally published only in the eighties and nineties.
